

RULES FOR THE INNS' CONDUCT COMMITTEE

Part I - Purpose and Objective

1. These Rules provide the terms under which the Inns' Conduct Committee will operate in determining whether an Inn of Court should refuse to admit an applicant for admission, or expel or refuse to Call a student to the Bar.
2. The function of the Inns' Conduct Committee is:
 - (a) To determine any question whether an applicant for admission to an Inn is a fit and proper person to become a practising barrister;
 - (b) To determine whether the conduct of a student of an Inn is so serious as to call into question his or her fitness to practice as a practising barrister and if so to administer appropriate sanctions; and
 - (c) To hear and finally determine appeals from determinations by a student's Inn of minor internal disciplinary matters against that student pursuant to BTR 87 and Rule 47.
3. These Rules should be read in conjunction with relevant sections of the Bar Training Regulations [BTRs].
4. To be eligible for admission to an Inn or Call to the Bar, a person must be a fit and proper person to become a practising barrister.
5. The Inns' Conduct Committee and the four Inns of Court will ensure that all existing and potential members receive consideration appropriate to their needs. There is a commitment to the elimination of unlawful or unfair discrimination on the grounds of sex, race, sex reassignment, disability, ethnic and national origin, nationality, sexual orientation, marital status, responsibility for dependants, religion or belief or age. The ICC recognises that it is the intention of the four Inns of Court that membership of the Inns should reflect the diversity of society. - 24. Subject to Rule 31, proceedings at the Hearing shall be at the discretion of the Chair of the Panel, but the Panel shall act in accordance with the principles of natural justice and have regard to Schedule 2. 32. Within 14 days of the conclusion of the proceedings and on behalf of the Inns' Conduct Committee, the Panel will produce a written report setting out its findings, the reasons for those findings and its decision. A failure to provide the report within 14 days shall not (of itself) affect the validity of the decision. As soon as it is available, the written report will be sent to the applicant/student, the Inn which made the referral, the other Inns and (where appropriate) the student's BVC Provider. Those written reports shall be retained in paper form only by the Secretary of the ICC. The names of those students who are expelled may be published on the Inn's website.
